1. Sihanouk expects to stay a few days in Peking after his return from North Korea, presumably in mid-August. He will then go to Iraq, and thereafter attend the non-aligned conference in Algiers scheduled for August 28 to September 8. Following that visit he will come to Peking.
2.  President Pompidou is likely to be here September 11, but date is not firm. This may have some bearing on your own proposed trip.
3. Warm regards.
